

How to reach the venue

The Conference venue is the "Centro Polifunzionale Scuola Specialisti Aeronautica Militare", located in Viale Ellittico - Caserta, in the proximity of the Royal Palace

Reaching Caserta by train

Coming from Rome take the southbound high speed train (TAV) to "Napoli Centrale" station. At this station take the regional train to Caserta station. Exiting the station take left as indicated in the picture and arrive at the school premises on foot in about 6 minutes (0.4km).

Tickets can be purchased on the Trenitalia website entering departing and arrival station or directly at the train station.

Map from Caserta station to Conference venue

Going to Caserta by plane

Land in Napoli-Capodichino Airport (NAP). From there take taxi to Napoli Centrale Station and take the train to Caserta.

Reaching Caserta by car

- From Rome: take the A1/E45 motorway (Milan - Naples) southbound and take the Caserta North Exit exit
- From Naples: take the A1 / E45 motorway northbound and take the Caserta North exit
- From Salerno: Highway A30 (Caserta-Salerno) westbound and the connection to A1 northbound
- From Bari: motorway A16 (Naples-Bari) westbound, near Nola change to A30 (Caserta-Salerno) westbound and the connection to A1 northbound (direction Rome).